True Worth Realty Corp.

PHOTOGRAPHY BY IVAN HUNTER

For the past eleven years Thu Watson has offered interior design services privately to upscale international clients while living in Vancouver, British Columbia. A personal meeting with Thu will affirm her ability to instill everything she touches with sensual elegance, distinguished taste, and viable sense of modern design for any lifestyle. As a Canadian, Thu's design draws on inspiration from around the world. She has successfully poised herself to meet the ever increasing demand for professionally designed, upper scale residential and commercial properties in both Vancouver and globally.

Thu Watson specializes in custom design, transforming out-of-date, poorly designed residential and commercial spaces into havens of comfort, luxury and modernity. Thu is an accomplished professional with unparalleled expertise in combining furnishings from a multitude of cultures and design movements into her convivial interiors. Her sharp judgment, flexible approach and commitment to excellence instill confidence in her clients.

Thu's attention to detail is impeccable. She is known in the real estate community as the very best in providing turnkey design. Continuity, consistency and solid management of design processes are her trademarks. Thu Watson's personal philosophies about the benefits of living have contributed directly to her success and shine through in her design.
